MEMO

September 2, 2008

RE: Statutory Delayed Repeals, Statutory Conditional Enactments and Conflicting Multiple Versions of Statutes

FROM: Holly B. Hunnicutt, Council Attorney/Editor

The Legislative Council publication that includes the following is enclosed:

1. The Statutory Delayed Repeals by A.R.S. Citation list. This list includes statutes that are scheduled to be repealed pursuant to previous legislative enactments. The statutory sections included on this list will be repealed on the date specified unless the legislature takes some action to address the scheduled repeal.
2. The Statutory Delayed Repeals by Year list. This list includes the statutes that are scheduled to be repealed according to the calendar year in which the statute will be repealed. This list should assist in determining which statutes are scheduled to be repealed in the next calendar year and whether some legislative action should be taken to address the scheduled repeal.
3. The Conditionally Effective Statutes by A.R.S. Citation list. This list includes A.R.S. sections that have been passed by the legislature but that require a condition to be met before the statutory change is actually effective.
4. The Conditionally Effective Statutes by Year list. This list includes conditionally enacted A.R.S. sections according to the year in which the condition is required to be met. Typically, conditional enactments will include a date by which a condition must be met in order for the conditionally enacted statute to become effective.
5. The Conflicting Multiple Versions of Statutory Sections list. This list contains statutes that were amended in a contradictory manner and that could not be blended into a single version because of the conflict. This list is provided as an informational tool and with the hope that, if any of these sections is amended, both versions of the section will be addressed in the legislation and the end result will be one version of the statute.

If you have any questions regarding any of these lists, please feel free to contact me or the drafter responsible for the related substantive area.
